YESTERDAY'S HEAT.
Yesterday broke the record for torridity during the present hot spell, and about equalled the heat of the sizzling weather in July. At 8 o'clock yesterday the temperature was 85 degrees, at noon 94 degrees, and at 2 o'clock 9645. These figures are from the thermometer at the many yard gate, but down town the heat was much greater, going in some localities as high as 105 degrees. The Weather Bureau reported $8 degrees at 3 o'clock. There, seems little hope for cooler weather before Monday, if then.
